

EMIF Deliverable 5.3: Functional assessment of novel biomarkers in cell models

Executive summary

Executive Summary

The work in WP5 has identified a set of proteins (CCL18, S100A4), metabolites (mannose) and lncRNAs in human white adipose tissue that are linked to metabolic complications of obesity. All results have been published and some of the factors have been shown to have effects on in vitro differentiated human adipocytes.

Contacts

EMIF-MET: Mikael Ryden
mikael.ryden@ki.se