Executive Summary

This deliverable reports on the linkage of data from research cohorts of non-demented individuals to electronic health registry data. In this way, data collected at baseline in the research cohorts could be used as predictor for dementia at follow-up. The initial selection of research cohorts was adjusted during the project as reported before and changed to the Erasmus Rucphen Family (ERF) and UK Biobank studies.

Contacts

EMIF-AD: Pieter Jelle Visser and Simon Lovestone pj.visser@maastrichtuniversity.nl / simon.lovestone@psych.ox.ac.uk